Invited Guests

David Ferrick, Former CSO, Axion BioSystems
Ian Ratcliffe, Former ALDA Board Member

We are sharing this list so attendees can identify and determine individuals they would like to network with at the upcoming ALDA conference. This is not to be used in any marketing efforts or as a distribution list to invite attendees to outside events or to engage in business development solicitations. Please remember that all ALDA members and attendees agree to abide by our Code of Conduct:

ALDA Code of Conduct

ALDA's powerful network offers opportunities for connection and collaboration within our industry. By joining ALDA, I agree to uphold and preserve the unique nature of this executive network by refraining from soliciting sales for my company's products or services to other members. This includes our membership directory as well as in-person events. Violations of this code will be reviewed by leadership and could result in removal from the ALDA member community.
